To Whom it May Concern;

In response to the Motion for Dismissal before the Public Service Commission I submit the attached response. I apologize if it does not meet established norms or formats concerning Motions, Briefs, or Pleadings or other Document forms submitted in such hearings. Being a simple consumer, I am not versed as well in legal matters as those representing Charter. I did ask for some assistance as to the proper format and was left to my own faculties as that was apparently a violation of the rules. My intent was not to request legal advice, rather to request certain process procedures.

Thank you,
 Michael Madden

Subject: RE: [External] Docket # 2020-224-C

Good Morning Mr. Madden,

My name is Jerisha Dukes, and I am the Hearing Examiner assigned to this docket. As a Staff Attorney with the Commission, I cannot provide legal advice/guidance. Without offering or providing legal advice, I provide the following limited procedural information to direct you to resources available to everyone found on the Commission's website, including a Pro Se Litigant Guide (www.psc.sc.gov/publications/pro-se-litigant-guide). The Commission does not have a particular format for the answer/reply. However, you can conduct a search of the Commission's Docket Management System to find examples of answers submitted by parties in other dockets. In addition, Article 8, "Practice and Procedure," Chapter 103 of the SC Code of State Regulations outlines the requirements and content of answers submitted for review by the Commission, as well as the procedures which are required to be followed and practiced by all parties or persons appearing before or filing an matter with the Commission.

In accordance with Commission practices and procedures, should you respond to this email, please remember to hit "reply all" so that there is no inadvertent, accidental ex parte communication in this Docket, regardless if such procedural communication may be exempt by statute.

With warm regards,

Jerisha Dukes, Esq.

Subject: [External] Docket # 2020-224-C

I received an email from Charter which is asking for a Dismissal of this case. I have a limited understanding of the procedural norms and legalese concerning this matter and would like to ask if there is a particular format in which I must answer and reply?

Thank you.
